

Placement Testing for University of Wisconsin Schools

<https://testing.wisc.edu/centerpages/regionaltesting.html>

The screenshot shows the website's header with the University of Wisconsin logo and 'CENTER FOR PLACEMENT TESTING'. Below the header, there is a 'Regional Testing Links' sidebar with links for Home, Testing Day Schedule, Directions and Maps, Campus Contacts, and FAQ. The main content area is titled 'Regional Placement Testing Program' and contains text about registration for placement exams starting February 1 and March 1. It also includes a link to request special accommodations. Below this text are four menu items: 'General Information About Regional Placement Testing', 'Paper/Pencil Testing in and near Wisconsin', 'Scheduling a computer based test (CBT) at a testing center', and 'Requesting Accommodations Due to a Disability'. At the bottom of the main content area, there is a blue link that says 'Follow this link to Register to take your Placement Tests'.

STEP 1
Navigate to UW Center for Placement Testing

STEP 2
Click on Follow this link . . .

The screenshot shows the 'Regional Testing Registration 2019' section. It includes links for requesting special accommodations and re-scheduling. Below this, there are two options for registration: Option 1 (Choose one of several pre-scheduled exam sessions, Paper and Pencil Test, No cost, Show available dates) and Option 2 (Schedule an individual exam session, Computer Based Test (CBT), Registration fee varies by appointment, Show sign-up information). An arrow points from the 'Show available dates' link in Option 1 to the right-hand text block.

STEP 3
Click to register for the free Paper/Pencil Placement Testing . . . This will open up a chart showing dates and campuses where you can take your tests—you can take your tests at ANY campus. You do not need to test at the campus that you are attending next year.

Test dates at the UWSP-Marshfield campus:

Saturday, March 21

Saturday, April 11
